The Placement Office of The University of Alabama School of Law is the focal point through which all available information regarding opportunities for professional employment is made available to the students and to graduates. Individual practitioners, law firms, judges, corporations, governmental agencies, and other prospective employers are invited to avail themselves of our placement facilities in the recruitment of qualified attorneys.

The School of Law welcomes personal interviews in Farrah Hall, and we will be pleased to make all of the necessary arrangements for you. Should any additional information be desired concerning our 1973 graduates, please call me at:

205-348-5441

or write me at:

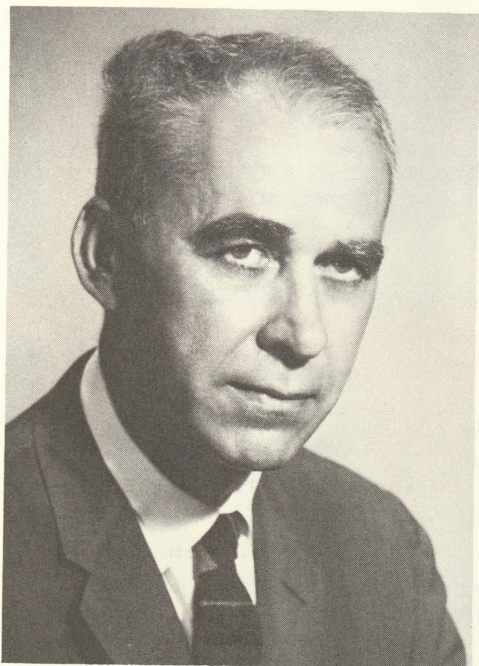

The University of Alabama
School of Law
Box 1435
University, Alabama 35486

I look forward to assisting you.

Bruce C. Heskett
Assistant Dean
Director of Placement

“The law: It has honored us;
may we honor it.”

Daniel Webster

The University of Alabama School of Law is proud of its graduates and of the record over the years these graduates have made as lawyers and as citizens.

We expect the 1973 class to make fine contributions to the Bar and to the community. I hope you will assist us in placing these new graduates in desirable positions.

Thomas W. Christopher
Dean
