CLASS OF 1985
PLACEMENT GUIDE
FOR EMPLOYERS
Message from the Dean

It is with a great sense of pride that we publish this directory through which to introduce the outstanding 1985 graduating class of The University of Alabama School of Law. These men and women were admitted through a process that affirmatively and energetically seeks out the best and the brightest. They have come to us from rich and diverse academic backgrounds.

These young lawyers have been subjected to a rigorous and demanding course of study - both theoretical and practical. Each has been taught to think like a lawyer and to engage in effective oral and written expression. The guiding philosophy at Alabama has been that expressed by Dean Albert Farrah:

Young gentlemen, the law is a jealous mistress, and you must woo her persistently, else she will forsake you and seek a more suitable companion. She trifles not with the football team, nor the baseball team, nor the Glee Club. He who would win her affection must live like a hermit and work like a horse.

While the faculty at The University of Alabama School of Law is committed to research and writing, the first order of priority has been outstanding teaching. The faculty is composed of men and women who are graduates of the finest colleges, universities, and law schools. Their dedication and expertise, combined with the hard work of students, has resulted in graduates who are prepared to become excellent lawyers.

The faculty, along with Penny Parker and her dedicated staff, cordially invites you to use our placement facilities and to talk with our fine students. It is my firm belief that you will be impressed.

Yours Sincerely,

Charles W. Gamble
Career Planning and Placement Program

The Law Career Planning and Placement program’s primary goal is to match the educational and experiential skills of law students with the particular hiring needs of employers. In addition, the program provides students with valuable information concerning resume writing, interviewing skills, and job search techniques. We encourage all employers, from the traditional law firm to the insurance company or institution of higher learning, who are hiring attorneys, to contact the Career Planning and Placement Office (205/348-6479), Law School, University of Alabama. Penny J. Parker, the Director of the program, serves as a liaison between students and employers. Let Ms. Parker and her assistant, Judy Green, assist you in finding the professionals you need.

Penny J. Parker, M.Ed., helps students assess their goals and experience as part of her work as Placement Director.

Lights burn late in Law Library, the most popular area of the Law School.
Student Body Profile and Activities

The Law School graduates approximately 155 students per year. Total full-time enrollment for the school year 1983-84 was 489. Over 747 applications from 11 different states and 64 schools were received for the fall of 1983. The 1983-84 entering class of 175 students had a mean average LSAT of 37/50 and a QPA of 3.5/4.0. Approximately 37% of the same class were women and 7% minorities.

GRADING SYSTEM
A = 4.0
B+ = 3.5
B = 3.0
C+ = 2.5
C = 2.0
D = 1.0
F = 0.0

Students are ranked in their classes each semester and also in their sections.

LAW JOURNALS/REVIEW

There are four journals for which students are selected after completion of their first year.

Alabama Law Review - The top seven students of each of two sections of the 1st year class are invited to join, and the top 50% may enter writing competition to complete the Review's selection. The selection is based on composite GPA score and writing competition.

Journal Of The Legal Profession - Membership is selected from the top 15% of the class.

Law and Psychology Review - Any student with an interest may participate. This is one of the first legal periodicals to combine the disciplines of law and the behavioral sciences.

The American Journal of Tax Policy - Open to students in Taxation and Tax Policy, this group is sponsored by the American College of Tax Counsel.

MOOT COURT

National Moot Court Competition
Third year students from the Moot Court Board participate. The 1980 team won best brief and best speaker; the 1981 team won best brief; and the 1983 team won best oralist, placed 2nd in the region, and participated in the National Competition.

John A. Campbell Moot Court Competition
Named in honor of a former Alabama Supreme Court Justice, this competition is open to second year students; final rounds are judged during Law Week.

Trial Advocacy Program
The Trial Advocacy Program makes available three elective courses that attempt to give students the opportunity to gain some practical experience in the law.

Employment Report On Class of 1983

Career Planning/Placement and Alumni Affairs Director, Penny Parker, indicates that placement statistics on the 1983 graduating class show that 91% of the class is employed and that only 7% are still actively in the job market. Based on the statistics from the 1983 class completed in January 1984, the number of students receiving judicial clerkships has nearly doubled; those students going into private practice has remained virtually the same; and almost 25% or one-quarter of the graduating class was placed out of state, with 15% in the Southeast. In addition, 75% or almost three-quarters of the 1983 class received salaries of $20,000 or above, while only 14% received less than $16,000 annually. One-half of those reporting are receiving some type of fringe benefits.

On-Campus Interviews

We encourage on-campus interviewing for employers who would like a cost-effective and time-efficient means of interviewing highly qualified students in a convenient location during a concentrated time span. The smaller, as well as the larger, law firm or legal employer can benefit from this organized method of fulfilling hiring needs. Employers may request the option of receiving resumes 10 days prior to their on-campus date and may pre-select those students they wish to interview based on previously stated criteria. The Placement Office will schedule interviews for employers with second and third year students during the academic year (see On-Campus Interview Request form for specific dates) and with first year students during the spring semester. Interviews for the fall semester of any year may not be scheduled before April 1 of the previous year. Spring interviews may be scheduled at any time.

The Career Planning and Placement Office

The Career Planning and Placement Office is located in Room 152-154 of the Law School and is open from 8:00 a.m. to 4:45 p.m., Monday-Friday. Call the office, or bring the attached On-Campus Request Form to schedule an interview date or for more information. An on-campus reservation form and National Association for Law Placement Data form will be mailed to the employer, who should return these as soon as possible with at least two copies of the firm resume, corporate report, or business description to the Placement Office.

Off-Campus Interviewing (Resume Referral)

Employers who cannot or do not wish to interview on-campus may call or send descriptions of positions available. The Placement Office will post the opportunity, collect resumes, transcripts, etc., to the employer's specification, and forward these in a packet. Employers may choose, instead, to have the students contact them directly.

Alumni Placement

Employers seeking experienced attorneys may also list opportunities with the Placement Office and are encouraged to contact the office when such lateral opportunities become available. The Placement Office circulates a quarterly listing of all available opportunities to those alumni who have requested this service. Alumni may contact the employer directly or the employer may request that resumes of qualified alumni be forwarded.

Southeastern Law Placement Consortium (SELP)

The University of Alabama School of Law is one of ten member Southeastern law schools that participate in recruiting conferences each year in Atlanta, Georgia. Students from all schools and employers nationwide cooperate in the Fall conference, which is the largest and most successful cooperative off-campus interviewing program for large firms in the U.S. This conference occurs annually in October.

Nondiscrimination Policy

The University of Alabama School of Law is a member of the National Association for Law Placement (NALP). Our placement program and school are committed to a policy against discrimination based on sex, race, color, religious creed, age, physical handicaps, or national origin. The facilities and services of the Placement Office and Law School are available only to those employers who are in agreement with the above policy.
