CLASSES OF 1989 & 1990 PLACEMENT GUIDE FOR EMPLOYERS
MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

During the last few years, the activities of our Placement Office have been expanded in order to serve both the needs of students and employers. One of the important projects of the Placement Office is the Placement Guide for Employers, better known as the "Facebook," which includes both the second and third year classes. The faculty is proud to present to you the classes of 1989 and 1990. These men and women were admitted through a process that affirmatively and energetically seeks out the best students. As you will note from their resumes, they have diverse academic backgrounds and professional goals. These graduates have been subjected to a rigorous and demanding course of study—both theoretical and practical. Each has been taught to think as a lawyer and to engage in effective oral and written expression. The guiding philosophy at Alabama has been that expressed by Dean Albert Farrah:

Young gentlemen, the law is a jealous mistress, and you must woo her persistently, else she will forsake you and seek a more suitable companion. She trifles not with the football team, nor the baseball team, nor the Glee Club. He who would win her affection must live like a hermit and work like a horse.

The University of Alabama School of Law has a fine, dynamic faculty. While they are committed to research and writing, the first order or priority is teaching. Their dedication and expertise, combined with the hard work of their students, have resulted in graduates who are prepared to become excellent lawyers. The faculty, along with the Placement Staff, join me in cordially inviting you to make use of our placement facilities in order to talk with our fine students. Our goal is to meet the hiring needs of you, the employer, with our fine law students.

Respectfully,

CAREER PLANNING AND PLACEMENT PROGRAM

The Law Career Planning and Placement program’s primary goal is to match the educational and experiential skills of law students with the particular hiring needs of employers. In addition, the program provides students with valuable information concerning resume writing, interviewing skills, and job search techniques. We encourage all employers, from the traditional law firm to the insurance company or institution of higher learning, who are hiring attorneys, to contact the Career Planning and Placement Office, The University of Alabama School of Law, P. O. Box 1435, Tuscaloosa, AL 35487-1435; telephone (205) 348-6479. The Director of the program serves as a liaison between students and employers. The Placement Staff will be pleased to assist you in finding the professionals you need.

CAREER PLANNING AND PLACEMENT PROGRAM

The Career Planning and Placement Program is designed to assist all students in their efforts to find employment, whether in traditional legal career areas or in non-traditional areas.

The Placement Office has an excellent Career Resource Library. In addition, seminars are presented on resume writing, interviewing techniques, and job-search techniques that help students refine their job-search skills. Special guest speakers and panel discussions are scheduled as part of the Career Planning/Placement Program.

The Office provides numerous opportunities for students and employers to meet and students are encouraged to participate in all recruiting conferences.

Southeastern Law Placement Consortium (SELP) is composed of eleven Southeastern law schools. Each October, students from the eleven schools and employers nationwide meet in Atlanta, Georgia, to participate in the largest and most successful cooperative off-campus interviewing program for law firms in the United States.

Mid-South Law Placement Consortium is a spring recruiting conference held in Nashville, Tennessee, and offers students the opportunity to interview with law firms in the mid-South area, which includes Tennessee, Kentucky, Arkansas, and parts of Georgia, Alabama, North and South Carolina.

Southeastern Law Schools Minority Job Fair is designed to provide Hispanic, Black and Asian law students an opportunity to interview with employers from the Southeast region. Students from 28 law schools participate in this fall recruiting conference.

Southeastern Public Interest Job Fair is a fall recruiting conference held in Atlanta, Georgia, that provides students employment opportunities with public-interest law employers in the states of Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Kentucky, Mississippi, Tennessee, North and South Carolina.

On-Campus Interviewing offers employers a cost-effective and time-efficient means of interviewing highly qualified students in a convenient location during a concentrated time span. The smaller, as well as the larger law firms, benefit from this organized means of interviewing students and fulfilling hiring needs.

Off-Campus Interviewing/Resume Forwarding provides employers who are unable to interview on campus a method of announcing positions available. The Placement Office will post the job description, collect resumes, and forward them to the employer. Employers also may elect to have the students contact them directly.

Alumni Placement provides employers, who are seeking experienced attorneys, the opportunity to list with the Placement Office positions available.

The fall On-Campus Interviewing program, SELP, Southeastern Law Schools Minority Job Fair, and Southeastern Public Interest Job Fair are available for second and third year students. The Mid-South Placement Consortium and employers who come to campus in the spring may interview first, second, and third year students.

NONDISCRIMINATION POLICY

Our placement program and school are committed to a policy against discrimination based on sex, race, color, religious creed, age, physical handicaps, or national origin. The facilities and services of the Placement Office and Law School are available only to those employers who are in agreement with the above policy.
